

These Walls

America the possible, let's make this dream come true.

Hope is rising,
rising like the sun.
Hope is rising,
but our work is far from done.
These walls were built
on four hundred years of pain.
Tear down these walls
'til none remain.

Fear and hatred,
casting shadows far too long.
Changes comin'
gonna take more than a song.
These walls were built
on four hundred years of lies.
Tear down these walls.
Open these eyes.

Work every day
'til there are
no more walls existin'.

Work every day
'til we hear
every voice is lifted.

Do what we must
to undo
centuries injustice.

Work every day
to create lasting bonds of trust. The change must begin

from within.
Tear down these walls.

Can you feel it?
Hope is rising like the sun.
These walls are tumblin' down,
these walls are tumblin' down,
these walls are tumblin' down.

Can you hear it
in the voice of everyone?
These walls are tumblin' down,
these walls are tumblin' down,
these walls are tumblin' down.

To do the work
that will build community.
These walls are tumblin' down,
these walls are tumblin' down.

Tear down these walls
inside of me.
These walls are tumblin' down,
these walls are tumblin' down,
these walls are tumblin' down,
these walls are tumblin' down.
